PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The following matters are incorporated by reference into CVS's responses to each paragraph of the Complaint:

A. The Complaint names CVS Health Corporation ("CVS Health") as a Defendant. On August 31, 2021, the Court granted Plaintiff's motion to dismiss CVS Health. Accordingly, CVS Health is not responding to the Complaint.

B. Where allegations are made against "Defendants" as a group, however described, CVS's responses apply only to CVS.

C. Most of the allegations in the Complaint are not directed at CVS and therefore do not require a response. The responses below are subject to that limitation, regardless of whether expressly stated or not.

D. The Complaint contains purported references to documents and third-party publications and statements that have often been excerpted, paraphrased, characterized, and otherwise taken out of context. These documents and third-party publications and statements should be considered, if at all, in context and in unmodified form, and CVS respectfully refers the Court to the respective materials for their true and complete contents.

E. Except as otherwise expressly stated herein, CVS denies each and every allegation contained in the Complaint, including any allegations contained in the preamble, unnumbered paragraphs, paragraphs, titles, headings, subheadings, table of contents, footnotes, and exhibits, and specifically denies any liability to Plaintiff. To the extent not expressly denied, all allegations for which CVS denies possessing knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief are denied.

F. CVS reserves the right to seek to amend and supplement its Answer as may be appropriate or necessary.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

CVS raises the following affirmative defenses to the Complaint. By designating the following defenses as affirmative defenses, CVS does not concede that it bears the burden of proof and/or the burden of persuasion as to any such defense. CVS reserves the right to (1) rely on any other applicable defenses that may become apparent during fact or expert discovery; (2) rely on any other applicable defenses set forth in any answer or list of affirmative defenses filed or submitted by any other Defendant in this action; and (3) amend this document and/or its answer to assert any such defenses.

FIRST DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, fails to state facts sufficient to constitute the purported causes of action, and fails to plead a legally cognizable injury.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutes of limitation.

THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of laches.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statutes of repose.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff lacks standing to bring all or some of their claims.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the voluntary payment doctrine.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of in pari delicto.

NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims and damages are barred or limited, in whole or in part, by common law, statutory, and state constitutional constraints on the exercise of police powers by a municipality.

TENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims and damages are barred or limited by the political question and separation of powers doctrines and because its claims implicate issues of statewide importance that are reserved for state regulation.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff is not the real party in interest.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff lacks capacity to bring its claims.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent CVS has valid defenses which would bar recovery by those persons on whose behalf Plaintiff seeks recovery.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are subject to all defenses that could be asserted if Plaintiff's claims were properly made by individuals on whose behalf Plaintiff seeks to recover.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff has failed to comply with the requirement that it identify each patient in whose claim(s) it has a subrogation interest and on whose behalf it has incurred costs.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff fails to plead that it reimbursed any prescriptions for any opioid distributed by CVS that harmed patients and should not have been written, or that CVS's allegedly improper conduct caused any health care provider to write any ineffective or harmful opioid prescriptions, or that any specific prescription was unauthorized, medically unnecessary, ineffective, or harmful.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrines of estoppel, waiver, and/or ratification.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims against CVS do not arise from the same transactions or occurrences as its claims against other defendants, as required for joinder of parties.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff failed to join all necessary parties, including without limitation prescribers, patients, and other third parties whom Plaintiff alleged engaged in the unauthorized, improper, or illicit prescription, dispensing, diversion, or use of opioids.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

CVS denies all types of causation, including without limitation cause in fact, proximate cause, and producing cause, as to the claims asserted against CVS.

TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of superseding and intervening causation.

TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because CVS has no legal duty to protect Plaintiff from the intentional criminal acts of third persons. Such criminal acts are superseding causes that extinguish any liability.

TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged injuries or damages were due to illicit use or abuse of medications.

TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent their alleged injuries and damages were caused or contributed to by the negligence or conduct of Plaintiff and/or third parties over whom CVS had no control and for whom it is not responsible.

TWENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the derivative injury rule and the remoteness doctrine bar Plaintiff from recovering payments that it allegedly made on behalf of its residents to reimburse any expenses for health care, pharmaceutical care, and other public services.

TWENTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff suffered no injuries or damages as a result of any action by CVS.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged injuries or damages were caused by unforeseeable or uncontrollable forces over which CVS had no control, including without limitation pre-existing medical conditions.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged injuries or damages were caused by the misuse of the medications involved, by failure to use the medications properly, and/or by the alteration, modification, or criminal misuse of medications prescribed by third parties over whom CVS had no control.

TWENTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because neither the users of the subject prescription medications nor their prescribers relied to their detriment upon any statement by CVS in determining to use or prescribe the subject prescription medications.

THIRTIETH DEFENSE

Any injuries and/or damages sustained by Plaintiff were caused, in whole or part, by its own failure to effectively enforce the law and prosecute violations thereof and any recovery by Plaintiff is barred or, alternatively, should be diminished according to its own fault.

THIRTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Any recovery by Plaintiff is barred or limited by the principle of comparative or contributory fault.

THIRTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Any recovery by Plaintiff may be barred or limited by the principles of informed consent and assumption of the risk, whether primary, express, or implied.

THIRTY-THIRD DEFENSE

CVS asserts its right to a proportionate reduction, based on the negligence or other conduct of any settling tortfeasor, responsible third party, or Plaintiff, of any damages found against CVS.

THIRTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent its alleged damages are speculative, uncertain, or hypothetical.

THIRTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

In the event of liability against CVS (which liability is specifically denied), a specific percentage of the tortious conduct that proximately caused Plaintiff's injury or loss is attributable to (1) Plaintiff; (2) other parties from whom Plaintiff seeks recovery; and (3) persons from whom Plaintiff does not seek recovery in this action, including but not limited to prescribers of opioids, their associates, and employers, including hospitals; non-party manufacturers of prescription opioids; non-party distributors of prescription opioids; non-CVS pharmacies and pharmacists employed or formerly employed at those pharmacies; individuals and entities involved in the distribution and/or sale of illegal opioids; individuals involved in procuring diverted prescription opioids and/or illegal drugs; delivery services; federal, state, and local government entities; and any other person identified by Plaintiff or any other defendant as a non-party whose tortious conduct proximately caused Plaintiff's injury or loss. O.C.G.A. § 51-12-33.

THIRTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

In the event of liability against CVS (which liability is specifically denied), CVS is liable only for its proportionate share of damages according to its percentage of fault. O.C.G.A. § 51-12-33(b). Any recovery by Plaintiff must be reduced pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 51-12-33(a) in proportion to Plaintiff's percentage of fault. In the event Plaintiff is fifty percent or more responsible for its claimed injury or loss, Plaintiff shall not be entitled to receive any damages. O.C.G.A. § 51-12-33(g).

THIRTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff may have failed or refused to exercise reasonable care and diligence to avoid loss and minimize damages and, therefore, may not recover for losses that could have been prevented by reasonable efforts on its part, or by expenditures which might reasonably have been made. O.C.G.A. § 51-11-7. Recovery, if any, should therefore be reduced by Plaintiff's failure to mitigate damages, if any.

THIRTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited by the economic loss rule.

THIRTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred or limited by the free public services and/or municipal cost recovery doctrines.

FORTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they relate to CVS's or other defendants' alleged advertising, public statements, lobbying, or other activities protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or by the Constitution of the State of Georgia or that of any other state whose laws may apply.

FORTY-FIRST DEFENSE

The damages which Plaintiff may be entitled to recover if liability is established (which liability is specifically denied) are capped pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 51-12-5.1 and 51-13-1, and pursuant to all federal and Georgia constitutional limitations on the assessment of punitive or exemplary damages.

FORTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Any damages that Plaintiff may recover against CVS must be reduced to the extent that Plaintiff is seeking damages for alleged injuries or expenses related to the same user(s) of the subject prescription medications, or damages recovered or recoverable by other actual or potential plaintiffs.

FORTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they rely, explicitly or implicitly, on a theory of market-share liability.

FORTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

To the extent Plaintiff attempts to seek equitable relief, Plaintiff is not entitled to such relief because Plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law.

FORTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that they violate the Due Process or Ex Post Facto clauses of the United States or Georgia constitutions to the extent Plaintiff seeks to impose liability retroactively for conduct that was not actionable at the time it occurred.

FORTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Defendant's rights under the Due Process Clause of the U.S. Constitution and applicable state Constitution or statute are violated by any financial or other arrangement that might distort a government attorney's duty to pursue justice rather than his or her personal interests, financial or otherwise, in the context of a civil enforcement proceeding, including by Plaintiff's use of a contingency fee contract with private counsel.

FORTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that they violate the Dormant Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

FORTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because federal agencies have exclusive or primary jurisdiction over the matters asserted in the Complaint.

FORTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are preempted by federal law, including (without limitation) the federal Controlled Substances Act and the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act ("FDCA").

FIFTIETH DEFENSE

regulations, and industry standards based on the state of knowledge at the relevant time(s) alleged in the Complaint.

FIFTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by conflict preemption as set forth in the United States Supreme Court's decisions in PLIVA, Inc. v. Mensing, 131 S. Ct. 2567 (2011), and Mutual Pharm. Co. v. Bartlett, 133 S. Ct. 2466 (2013).

FIFTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are preempted insofar as they conflict with Congress's purposes and objectives in enacting relevant federal legislation and authorizing regulations, including the Hatch-Waxman Amendments to the FDCA and implementing regulations. See Geier v. Am. Honda Co., 529 U.S. 861 (2000).

FIFTY-THIRD DEFENSE

To the extent Plaintiff asserts claims that depend solely on violations of federal law, including any claims of a "fraud on the FDA" with respect to the manufacturers disclosure of information related to the safety of their medications at issue, such claims are barred and should be dismissed. See Buckman Co. v. Plaintiffs' Legal Comm., 531 U.S. 341 (2001).

FIFTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

To the extent Plaintiff asserts claims that depend solely on violations of federal law, including any claims of "fraud on the DEA" with respect to CVS's compliance with statutes or regulations administered and/or enforced by the DEA, such claims are barred and should be dismissed. See Buckman Co. v. Plaintiffs' Legal Comm., 531 U.S. 341 (2001).

FIFTH-FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the deference that common law accords discretionary actions by the FDA under the FDCA and discretionary actions by the DEA under the Controlled Substances Act.

FIFTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to exhaust administrative remedies.

FIFTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

If Plaintiff incurred the damages alleged, which is expressly denied, CVS is not liable for damages because the methods, standards, or techniques of designing, manufacturing, labeling, and distributing of the prescription medications at issue complied with and were in conformity with the laws and regulations of the Controlled Substances Act, the FDCA, and the generally recognized state of the art in the industry at the time the product was designed, manufactured, labeled, and distributed.

FIFTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent they are based on any allegations involving failure to provide adequate warnings or information because all warnings or information that accompanied the allegedly distributed products were approved by the United States Food & Drug Administration for a product approved under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. § 301 et seq.), as amended, or Section 351, Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. § 262), as amended, or the warnings and information provided were those stated in monographs developed by the United States Food & Drug Administration for pharmaceutical products that may be distributed without an approved new drug application.

FIFTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part under the learned intermediary doctrine.

SIXTIETH DEFENSE

CVS did not owe or breach any statutory or common law duty to Plaintiff.

SIXTY-FIRST DEFENSE

CVS appropriately, completely, and fully performed and discharged any and all obligations and legal duties arising out of the matters alleged in the Complaint.

SIXTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because CVS complied at all relevant times with all applicable laws, including all legal and regulatory duties.

SIXTY-THIRD DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiff relies on letters or other informal guidance from the DEA to establish CVS's regulatory duties, such informal guidance cannot enlarge CVS's regulatory duties in the absence of compliance by DEA with the requirements by the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. § 551 et seq.

SIXTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff has no private right of action under the relevant laws and regulations.

SIXTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the Restatement (Second) of Torts § 402A, Comments j and k, and Restatement (Third) of Torts: Products Liability § 6.

SIXTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

CVS is not liable for any statements in the manufacturers' branded or unbranded materials.

SIXTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part, or are subject to other limitations, by the Georgia products liability statute, O.C.G.A. § 51-1-11 et seq.

SIXTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's nuisance claims are barred to the extent that it lacks the statutory authority to bring a nuisance claim under Georgia law or its own applicable county or municipal codes or regulations.

SIXTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's common law and statutory public nuisance claims are barred or limited by the Georgia products liability statute.

SEVENTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claim of public nuisance is barred or limited because no action of CVS involved interference with real property; illegal conduct perpetrated by third parties involving the use of an otherwise legal product does not involve a public right against the distributor sufficient to state a claim for public nuisance; the alleged public nuisance would have impermissible extraterritorial reach; and the alleged conduct of Defendant is too remote from the alleged injury as a matter of law and due process.

SEVENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claim for unjust enrichment is barred or limited because CVS did not receive and retain any alleged benefit from Plaintiff.

SEVENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, reduced, and/or limited pursuant to the applicable Georgia statutory and common law regarding limitations of awards, caps on recovery, and setoffs.

SEVENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, reduced, and/or limited to the extent that CVS is entitled to a credit or setoff for any and all sums Plaintiff has received in the way of any and all settlements.

SEVENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiff is alleging fraud, fraudulent concealment, or similar conduct, Plaintiff has failed to plead fraud with sufficient particularity.

SEVENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff fails to plead any actionable misrepresentation or omission made by or attributable to CVS.

SEVENTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part because no conduct of CVS was misleading, unfair, or deceptive.

SEVENTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because neither the users, nor their prescribers of the medications distributed by CVS, nor Plaintiff itself, relied to their detriment upon any statement by CVS in determining to use the medications at issue.

SEVENTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims for punitive or exemplary damages or other civil penalties are barred or reduced by applicable law or statute or, in the alternative, are unconstitutional insofar as they violate the due process protections afforded by the United States Constitution, the excessive fines clause of the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution, the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution, and applicable provisions of the Constitution of this State or that of any other state whose laws may apply. Any law, statute or other authority purporting to permit the recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties in this case is unconstitutional, facially and as applied, to the extent that, without limitation, it: (1) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to guide and restrain the jury's discretion in determining whether to award punitive damages or civil penalties and/or the amount, if any; (2) is void for vagueness in that it fails to provide adequate advance notice as to what conduct will result in punitive damages or civil penalties; (3) unconstitutionally may permit recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties based on harms to third parties, out-of-state conduct, conduct that complied with applicable law, or conduct that was not directed, or did not proximately cause harm, to Plaintiff (4) unconstitutionally may permit recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties in an amount that is not both reasonable and proportionate to the amount of harm, if any, to Plaintiff and to the amount of compensatory damages, if any; (5) unconstitutionally may permit jury consideration of net worth or other financial information relating to Defendants; (6) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to be applied by the trial court in post-verdict review of any award of punitive damages or civil penalties; (7) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards for appellate review of any award of punitive damages or civil penalties; (8) would unconstitutionally impose a penalty, criminal in nature, without according to Defendants the same procedural protections that are accorded to criminal defendants under the constitutions of the United States, this State, and any other state whose laws may apply; and (9) otherwise fails to satisfy Supreme Court precedent, including, without limitation, Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Haslip, 499 U.S. 1 (1991); TXO Production Corp. v. Alliance Resources, Inc., 509 U.S. 443 (1993); BMW of N. Am. v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559 (1996); State

Farm Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 (2003); and Philip Morris USA v. Williams, 549 U.S. 346 (2007).

SEVENTY-NINTH DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiff seeks punitive, exemplary, or aggravated damages, any such damages are barred because the product at issue, and its labeling, were subject to and received pre-market approval by the FDA under 52 Stat. 1040, 21 U.S.C. § 301.

EIGHTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff lacks capacity to assert their claims, including claims indirectly maintained on behalf of their citizens and claims brought as parens patriae.

EIGHTY-FIRST DEFENSE

CVS followed good faith dispensing practices and its pharmacists properly fulfilled their corresponding responsibility to review prescriptions for indications that they were not issued in the usual course of professional treatment. 21 C.F.R. § 1306.04(a). CVS pharmacists did not knowingly fill any prescriptions that they knew were not legitimate.

EIGHTY-SECOND DEFENSE

CVS and its pharmacists reasonably relied upon the prescribers who issued the prescriptions and have the primary "responsibility for the proper prescribing and dispensing of controlled substances." 21 C.F.R. § 1306.04(a).

EIGHTY-THIRD DEFENSE

CVS and its pharmacists reasonably relied upon the DEA which set annual national quotas for controlled substances based upon the country's legitimate medical needs and is responsible for the enforcement of the CSA.

EIGHTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

CVS cannot control and is not responsible for what patients do with prescription drugs after they are dispensed by pharmacists. Patients have a duty to use the drugs properly and store them safely.

EIGHTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's public nuisance claim is precluded by O.C.G.A. § 26-4-1 et seq. and the Georgia Legislature's comprehensive regulation of drugs of abuse.

EIGHTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims for punitive or exemplary damages are barred because CVS has neither acted nor failed to act in a manner that entitles Plaintiff to recover punitive or exemplary damages.

EIGHTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff cannot obtain relief on its claims based on actions undertaken by CVS of which CVS provided notice of all material facts.

EIGHTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel.

EIGHTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's damages, if any, were caused by the direct and proximate negligence or other conduct of entities or persons other than CVS, and in the event CVS is found liable to Plaintiff, CVS will be entitled to indemnification, contribution, and/or apportionment.

NINETIETH DEFENSE

Any verdict or judgment that might be recovered by Plaintiff must be reduced by those amounts that already have indemnified or with reasonable certainty will indemnify Plaintiff in whole or in part for any past or future claimed economic loss from any collateral source or any other applicable law.

NINETY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of acquiescence, settlement, and release.

NINETY-SECOND DEFENSE

CVS is entitled to, and claims the benefit of, all defenses and presumptions set forth in or arising from any rule of law or statute of this State or any other state whose substantive law might control the action.

NINETY-THIRD DEFENSE

CVS asserts all applicable defenses under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 8(c) and 12(b) and/or O.C.G.A. §§ 9-11-8(c) and -12(b) as investigation and discovery proceeds.

NINETY-FOURTH DEFENSE

To the extent they are not otherwise incorporated herein, CVS incorporates as a defense the defenses and arguments raised in the motions to dismiss of the Defendants in this case.

NINETY-FIFTH DEFENSE

CVS adopts by reference any additional applicable defense pled by any other defendants not otherwise pled herein.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

CVS hereby demands a jury trial as to all issues or claims for which a jury trial is allowed.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

CVS prays that (a) judgment be entered dismissing Plaintiff's Complaint with prejudice, and (b) this Court grant it such other relief as it deems just and appropriate including costs and reasonable attorney's fees.
